

FACTS

WHAT DOES First Service Federal Credit Union DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

WHY?

Financial companies choose how they share your information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

WHAT?

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security number and income
- account balances and payment history
- credit history and credit scores

When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

HOW?

All financial companies need to share members' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their members' personal information; the reasons First Service FCU chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

| Reasons we can share your personal information | Does First Service FCU Share? | Can you limit this sharing? |
|---|-------------------------------|-----------------------------|
| For our everyday business purposes — such as to process your transactions, maintain your account(s), respond to court orders and legal investigations, or report to credit bureaus | YES | NO |
| For our marketing purposes — to offer our products and services to you | YES | NO |
| For joint marketing with other financial companies — | YES | NO |
| For our affiliates' everyday business purposes — information about your transactions and experiences | NO | We don't share |
| For our affiliates' everyday business purposes — information about your creditworthiness | NO | We don't share |
| For nonaffiliates' to market to you — | NO | We don't share |

Who we are

Who is providing this notice? First Service Federal Credit Union

Who we are

How does First Service FCU protect my personal information? To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does First Service FCU collect my personal information? We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- open an account or deposit money
- pay your bills or apply for a loan
- use your credit or debit card

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing? Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes — information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
